SUMMARY

AI Product Manager with 9 years leading AI/ML, data, and cloud products from 0 → 1 through enterprise scale across F100 and a B2B SaaS startup. Most recently led LLM-powered automated access provisioning for 82K users, automating 64% of all enterprise requests with 97%+ precision. Previously delivered $8M/year in OpEx savings and reduced access-risk exposure by 94% across 5.7M+ cloud resources. Builder-first and hands-on with LLMs, CLI, AI agents, and GenAI prototyping. Experienced across product discovery, roadmap, model evaluation, risk-tiered rollout, adoption, and monitoring.

EXPERIENCE

Capital One
New York City, NY

Product Manager - AI, Analytics — Jan 2025 – Present

Lead Product Analyst — Oct 2020 – Dec 2024

Scoped, launched, and owned a portfolio of data and AI/ML products securing human and machine access enterprise-wide.

GenAI Access Decisioning

- Led product roadmap, evals, and risk-tiered launch for LLM access decisioning, scaled to all 82K enterprise users
- Defined UI/UX and grew adoption leveraging 3 LLM (Gemma 4) models, combining identity, request, and context datasets
- Established launch guardrails and model acceptance criteria with Model Risk Office, evals across precision, latency, consistency, and PII; operationalized golden datasets, LLM-as-judge evaluation, red-team testing, and production monitoring
- Automated 64% manual access requests at 97%+ approval/rejection precision, P95 inference < 1.s; reduced cycle time by 53%

Automated Employee Access Revocation

- Owned product strategy and roadmap for employee-access revocation, and improved certifications with automated controls
- Scaled enterprise-wide adoption through executive alignment and company-wide forums, removed 364K+ unused human accesses via a “Last Login” data product, reduced risk-exposure window by 40%, and saved $8M/year in OpEx

Automated Risk Certification

- Product lead for continuous S3 risk certification product, scaling roadmap, API and UX requirements, and phased rollout across 5.7M cloud resources; reduced the risk-exposure window by 94%, and improved risk remediation by 37%
- Drove enterprise-wide adoption through self-service dashboards, office hours, and guided onboarding for customer support
